Help Us, Help Others

Colin McGivney

My name is Colin McGivney and I am a board member of Nothing Is Impossible. Besides volunteering for the foundation, I am currently a second-year law student at Rutgers School of Law. I have been exposed to this incredible organization since its inception, and have witnessed countless lives be forever changed for the better. One such instance in particular has stuck with me.

During an intolerable cold snap where temperatures plummeted below freezing and stayed there for weeks, the Nothing is Impossible Foundation was contacted by a local bank and informed of a couple in need.

A few years ago, Sussex County experienced a ferociously cold winter. Heating systems were taxed and with the high cost of fuel oil many who could barely "get by" were unable to pay for fuel oil. During this particular winter, an elderly couple were literally freezing in their home as they could not pay for fuel oil on their fixed income. These folks had no living relatives and had nowhere else to turn. A local bank learned of this couple's plight when a neighbor innocently mentioned the situation while making a transaction. The bank, knowing of our organization, contacted us and we discovered that this proud veteran of World War II and his wife were suffering in silence. We contacted this gentleman and explained that we admired him for his valor in serving our country and would be proud to be able to help him. Nothing Is Impossible helped pay for their fuel oil. They never needed any additional help, just some temporary assistance during this difficult time.

This is why our Foundation exists, to give that temporary help when a catastrophic situation exists. Would you please consider a year end charitable contribution to the Nothing Is Impossible Foundation? Thank you!

100% of all donations are given to those in need.

Please consider giving a gift to support the mission of Nothing Is Impossible as the tax year comes to close. Help us, help others for the holidays.
